ABOUT THE COLLECTION

Administrative History: The Archibald Bulloch Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) was named after Archibald Bulloch of South Carolina, who moved to Georgia in 1758. He was a member of the Constitutional Congress, Revolutionary War veteran, the first governor of Georgia, great-great grandfather of the 26th President of the United States, Theodore Roosevelt, great-great-great grandfather of former First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt, and the namesake of Bulloch County, Georgia. The DAR participates in programs and activities in their respective communities that support the preservation of Revolutionary War and patriotic history. Priding themselves in their community educational efforts, the DAR also fundraises for local groups to promote historical education.

Scope and Content: This is a collection of scrapbooks that documents the activities of the Archibald Bulloch Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution from 1973 to 1985. The scrapbooks include newspaper clippings, photographs, programs, correspondence, event and activity information, genealogical information of Revolutionary War veterans, and local history.

System of Arrangement: Each scrapbook is stored in its own box and is labeled with the date ranges of the content included.
